Organisation details

- Bus transfer hours are optional and complementary. In all of the symposium meetings locations (except Minoas villa and Byzantine Monastery) there is local bus transportation (timetable to be announced). If participants would like to stay longer at a beach, they are able to return at Skopelos town by local transfer buses and their own expenses.
- During the symposium meetings, coffee and refreshments are kindly provided by sponsors, who own the taverns and cafes and will host the meetings.
- Examples of Skopelos beaches<sup>9</sup>
- Some minor changes in meeting places have been provided for, depending on the weather. Normally, June is sunny and the temperature is 25o C.
- For accompanied persons, tourist and guide information will be provided. They are invited in the welcome reception, free of charge.
- During all days, the secretary of the symposium will help in practical matters and any tourist information that is needed.
- All symposium meetings will be taped in order to record the conversations and facilitate the final papers’ writing.
